“ My sincere condolences to you kids. Louise was so kind, sweet and her laugh was the best. She was my neighbor for many many years and we played all the old games as the neighbor kids did. Red rover crack the whip beans are burning lol. She always made me feel safe and would keep me safe from the other kids. May she now have her mother daughter conversations. Love and peace Louise.

“ I worked Louise and Paul at County Market for many many years. Louise was such an awesome person and a great friend, not just to myself, to all she worked with. I have never forgotten all the good times working together. Thanks for the memories. May you rest eternally together with our Lord And Savior. Richard Gonzales
