“ I am so sad to hear of Mary's passing. I work on the second floor of the building where she received dialysis. I would walk by her occasionally and she'd always say "hello" and have a smile for me. She was the sweetest. I am sad I will never see her smiling face again. Prayers for her family.

“ My mom went to dialysis with Mary. She wanted to send her condolences to you and your family. Mary was a very beautiful person inside and out. My mom will miss her and her beautiful smile.

“ Me and my mom were just talking about this one time my grandma went to church with us, and towards the end of the service the pastor said a prayer and said raise your hand if you want to be saved. My grandma rose her hand and then quickly put it down. But they had seen her and called her to the alter, she then later got saved. We know she is happily rejoicing up in heaven right now with her other lost loved ones. We all miss her so much. I cant wait to see her again some day.💕💕

“ I worked with Mary at Pueblo Manor for many years. She was one of the kindest people I've ever known. She took beautiful care of the residents, and went above and beyond to help her co-workers and friends. Mary had a beautiful place waiting for her - she had wings while she was here on earth, now those wings can be seen. Peace to all of you.

“ Mary was the kind of person that you just love everything about her. She had a wonderful voice that she generously shared for the enjoyment of all. She was a great friend to my Mom who loved her very much as I also grew to. Mary will be missed a great deal but I hope she will be happy in paradise.
