“ Oh, Mary Ann, such a brave soul!! We all know you suffered many years with your health conditions, but you always had a smile and your little giggle. And I never heard you complain. The last time I saw you at the family reunion sitting in a wheelchair., I remember you smiling at all your family as they sat around you at the park. You had so much love radiating from you for them. You are now resting without pain in the arms of Jesus. We will miss you and your smile. My deepest condolences to your family.
