“ So many childhood memories to remember of Matt and his siblings. The Wallace's and DeHerrera's were next door neighbors in Boone. We had a lot of Hide & Seek games, catching tadpoles and charging up and down, Little Pikes Peak. RIP Matt and my prayers go out to Vicky, Brian and family members.

“ Matt, a ray of shine, sweet, happy, handsome, a contiguous smile you will be missed bunches/bunches. Matt my primo I was blessed to have you as one of my fav's always and forever. I had the pleasure to have you stay at aunt Mary's during Santa Days. You loved the valley very much I could see the glow in your face. You were at peace in San Luis but God needed you more so he called you home to soon. I will miss you mucho one of my fav's primos ever. Hugs to all the loved ones in heaven. Via Con Dios my precious cousin. You will live in my heart forever: thanking you.
