His love for everyone was customized to each individual to know this boy was to love him, his smile brightens every room and his laughter was contagious. He loved family. He loved his brothers with all his heart, Anthony and Tyson. They were his favorite people. But he also had other favorites his special people in his life Aiden, Tristan, Milo, Elijah, Dominic and someone he looked up to Brandee Flores. Matthew made time with them well spent from winning and dinning, to playing basketball, working out, or simply just hanging out in his room being funny playing video games, wrestling and rapping to his music. Having all the boys have sleep overs at 20 years is pretty wild but that was Matt he would always find a way to make it work including everyone in his shenanigans. Matt loved homemade food and he loved his grandma's cooking. He loved when we gathered as a family, taco Tuesday was his favorite. Such a smart young man, with a big heart trying to make it on his own. It was a great privilege and blessing to know you Matthew thank you for the memories and the laughter you brought to our lives. “ Matthew helped me learn how to be a mom before his brother Tyson was born. Matthew was the sweetest, happiest boy! He was the best big brother I could’ve asked for, for Tyson. He was so bright and his joy was contagious. One of my favorite memories of Matthew was when I would dress him so cute for school, but when I’d pick him up he’d be in a completely different outfit. He would sneak the mismatched clothes that he wanted to wear in his backpack and change at school. I would say, “that’s not what you were wearing this morning??” And he’d just giggle. My heart is broken. I love you Matthew but I know you are with your mama now. God bless you.
