“ I met Melissa when we were at school at PCC. She was such a kind soul. She was like a mom to our whole class back in 2014. She helped me through my loss and was just amazing. She's so deeply missed. Rest easy Melissa. Thank you for being so kind

“ So many wonderful memories with Melissa from playing softball together for many years to my most favorite memory which is July 22, 2003 when we were in the hospital together and had our babies just hours apart. Dominic and Xexala are our birth twins. We loved sharing this blessing together. I will cherish our memories forever sister, fly high my beautiful friend...until we meet again.
