

Melissa Lynn Quintana

May 24, 2018 - May 28, 2018

Melissa was born in 1977 to Augustine and Mary Grano. She was preceded in death by her father; sister, Quinn Sky Grano; and her grandparents. Melissa is survived by her husband, William A. Quintana Sr.; sons, Nicholas Grano-Garcia, William A. (Andrea) Quintana Jr.; Joshua Quintana and Michael Quintana; brother, Bryon (Julia) Apodaca; niece, Malayni Apodaca; grandchildren, Jessica and James Quintana; mother, Mary Martinez; mother-in-law, Margaret Zamarripa; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family and friends. Melissa was many things to many people. Devoted wife. Mother. Grandmother. Daughter. Sister. Aunt. Niece. Cousin. Coworker. Friend.

The beautiful woman who looked like Natalie Wood.

The woman who devoted herself to her husband, her son, and their family.

The woman who could work on a vehicle like her mechanic father, then whip up a three-course meal in the same day.

Melissa was the glue that held her family together. Even though she could be quiet at times, she loved her family and friends. 41 years of love, laughter, pain, loss, hard work, pots of green chili, cakes, family barbecues, running a successful business. And memories. A sweet "I love you" as she sent Nicholas to bed. The sound of a spoon in a mixing bowl full of batter. The laughter at one of William's jokes. And that smile. That smile that could take your breath away. She was beautiful in every way possible. Melissa was many things. But, above all, she was happy. Being a homemaker made her happy. Cooking and baking for her family and friends made her happy. Nicholas made her happy. Bill made her happy. Mary made her happy. Her family and friends made her happy. Her job at Ferguson made her happy. And she made us happy.

And that's why we loved her, and how we'll always remember her – as the best in all of us.
