

Melita A. Lobato

January 1, 1942 - February 2, 2025

Melita A. Lobato, 83, of Pueblo, CO went to be with the Lord on February 2, 2025. She was preceded in death by husband, Joseph Tom Lobato; parents, Frank and Tonita Gallegos; sister, Isabel Valdez; brother, Joseph Gallegos. She is survived by son, Joseph Frank Lobato; grandson, Alex Vargas-Lobato; stepson, Steve Lobato; sisters, Mary Carmel Gonzales and Lolita Lopez; numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Melita was dedicated to faith, family, and care of others. She first earned a nursing degree and became ER Nurse at St Mary Corwin Hospital. She then changed careers and became a Teacher Aide educating children. She retired from School District 60 after 30 years of service. She was active at her local church: St Leander Catholic Parish where she taught catechism, served in Altar & Rosary Society, and was an Eucharistic Minister. She was a member and past president of American GI Forum Auxillary Group, PTA, and cancer support group. Her greatest joys were serving the Lord, spending time with family, and caring for others. She was a great cook and baker. She was the best mom, grandma, godmother, aunt and sister. She will be dearly missed and never forgotten. Special thanks to staff at Sangre. Service will be livestreamed through Facebook and YouTube at Romero Family Funeral
