

Michael David Dalsimer

March 31, 1956 - December 14, 2022

Michael David Dalsimer Jr., 66, of Pueblo passed away on December 14, 2022. He was preceded in death by his parents, Michael Dalsimer Sr. and Erma Garcia; and grandfather, David Vail Dalsimer. He is survived by his children, Jessica Dalsimer Michael Dalsimer III, Amanda Misty Dalsimer and Rico Michael Dalsimer; grandchildren, Courtney, Kylier, Kobyn, Devian and Taylor; siblings, Lynn, Tawni and Lisa; numerous nieces, nephew, extended family and friends. Michael loved collecting cars, painting and working on cars. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

Tribute Wall

“ It's now no secret Mike had cancer. I respected his decision to keep that private, but hopefully this belated post will evoke some smiles because it's sooo Mike. At his first (and only, unfortunately) cancer treatment, we got IN TROUBLE. REPRIMANDED. For laughing too loud. Apparently he missed the memo that it's supposed to be a solemn and mirthless chore. Admonished, we huddled up giggling and snickering like 12-year olds in a library. Wheeling Mike out of the room, we saw a roomful of thumbs up and smiling faces. Clearly, they admired his charisma. Who goes to cancer treatment and acquires a gaggle of groupies?!? Mike Dalsimer, of course. Always the coolest guy in the room. I miss you, Mike. "Family Feud." And I mean it ;)

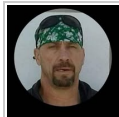

Audra Ziolkowski - February 07, 2023 at 04:30 PM

“ I can't believe you are not here you are one of the best friends I have ever had. Love and friendship forever. Rest in Peace babe!

John Schmidt - January 10, 2023 at 12:41 PM

Sorry I had to use Smitty's Facebook that was from Margaret

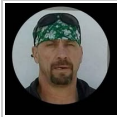

John Schmidt - January 10, 2023 at 12:42 PM

“ John Schmidt lit a candle in memory of Michael David Dalsimer

John Schmidt - January 10, 2023 at 11:05 AM

*You're truly be missed but you'll never be forgotten. Words can't express how grateful I am for the compassion and understanding you had for me
I'm truly thankful and appreciative for the time you share with me in your life
AND how thankful I am for your patience understanding and compassion and you're truly a blessingamily & your friends who are grieving*

John Schmidt - January 10, 2023 at 12:19 PM

JF

“ Jody A Faiola lit a candle in memory of Michael David Dalsimer

Jody A Faiola - January 07, 2023 at 07:24 AM

AM

“ It's hard to believe that you're gone. You will be missed by many! RIP my friend, fly with the angels.

Amy - December 25, 2022 at 09:08 AM

AM

“ Amy lit a candle in memory of Michael David Dalsimer

Amy - December 25, 2022 at 09:04 AM