“ Today, while I was searching the obituaries for a friend who passed away a couple of days ago, I saw this. I am completely heartbroken and stunned. Mike (“Mickey”) was my neighbor when we were growing up on Carousel Ln. He was my most favorite tennis partner and my favorite male friend. I loved to hang around with him. We had a lot of fun and had a lot of conversations about life. I remember his dad was a great wrestling coach and his mother was a great teacher/principal. In fact, his mother was my son’s principal. Billy was a fantastic wrestler. They all were such wonderful people. Mickey loved them very much. He looked up to Billy and wanted to be as good a wrestler as was. I will always cherish the memories Mickey and I had.
