

Nancy L. Stutz

April 25, 1938 - July 18, 2025

Nancy L. Stutz, beloved mother, grandmother, and friend, passed away peacefully on July 18, 2025, at the age of 87, surrounded by the love she so freely gave. Born in Denver, CO, Nancy lived a life rich in connection, curiosity, and compassion. She was the heart of every gathering—welcoming, warm, and endlessly generous. Her greatest joy was the people she loved, and she made everyone feel seen and valued. A devoted reader, Nancy believed books could take you anywhere and shared that passion with generations. She also loved to travel, embracing the world with wide eyes and an open heart, always collecting memories over souvenirs. Nancy was a lifelong supporter of causes close to her heart, including Urban Peak, Uplift Internationale, and Face-to-Face Colorado. She is preceded in death by her parents, Lewis R. and Dorothy J. Thomas, and her granddaughter, Jennifer D. Stutz. She is survived by her sons, Stephan F. and Douglas L. Stutz (Cindy); grandchildren Robert, Lanessa, Justin (Maureen), Jamie (Derek); many beloved great-grandchildren; and a wide circle of cherished friends. In lieu of flowers, please honor Nancy's memory by reading a good book, booking the trip you've been dreaming about, or calling someone you love.

“ Nancy and I became fast friends from the time she walked into my salon, then we became family. Nancy loved purple, dolphins and Jelly Bellies but above everything and everyone she loved her family. I feel like I know all of you because she shared every birthday gathering, holiday and family event with me. She could make you feel like you were right there. When you were happy she was happy, when things were not going well with any of you she worried. Just know that you were the light of her life and the beat of her heart. I can honestly say that I am a much better person for having had Nancy in my life and will never forget her loyalty, sense of humor and boy she had the best eye rolls of anyone I knew, and the love she extended to me and my family. Will miss her terribly and love her always. Frank and I send our condolences, hugs and love to you all. Della
