

Nathaniel Joseph Rebeterano

February 21, 1988 - August 22, 2025

Nathaniel Joseph Rebeterano, 37, of Pueblo, CO passed away on August 22, 2025. He was preceded in death by his parents, Jerry Chavez and Shirley Rebeterano; grandparents, Ruben and Alice Rebeterano and Florencio and Valentina Chavez; brothers, Christopher Chavez, Eddie Rebeterano and Neil Chavez; and furbaby, Osiris. He is survived by his wife, Lorey Rebeterano; children, Nathaniel (Chessa) Rebeterano, Mya Rebeterano, Alina Rebeterano, Aniyah Rebeterano and Essence Smith; siblings, Michael, Charlene, Lawrence, Adam and Jerry; niece, Nancy, Kaylarose and Emiliarose; numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, extended family and friends. Nathaniel loved watching Patriots and the Dukes. He also loved to pray to his girl Santa Mueret and was a big practioner. He enjoyed roofing, Landscaping, plumbing, fishing, tattooing, working on cars, smoking and having a drink. Above all he loved spending time with his family and torturing his family. Nathaniel will be deeply missed by all who loved him.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

SEP 16. 3:00 PM - 4:00 PM (MT)

Romero Family Funeral Home
110 Cleveland St.
Pueblo, CO 81004
(719) 583-1313
romeroffh@live.com

Tribute Wall

PQ

“ My deepest condolences goes out to the Rebeterano Family. I remember Nathaniel when he was a very young man, very polite and respectable towards me. He had a major impact on me when I worked at YAFA, for I knew he had a great spirit, drive and ambition. It saddens me to see that he has passed, but I know in my heart that he is shining down on his wife, children and family. God Bless you and RIP!

Peggy Quintana - September 04, 2025 at 01:00 PM

Nate Sr. Going to miss your one liners and joking around. Now you can be with your Momma Shirley 💕 RIP

Valma Segura - September 09, 2025 at 02:41 PM