“ Nicholas was such a sweetheart, a big, cuddly teddybear with one of the kindest and caring hearts of anybody I have ever known. I still see him as that fun and loving, sweetly smiling little boy, always in tow with Auntie Barbara and her entourage of nieces and nephews before Miranda was also included in that bunch! At Central, Nick always treated me with love and respect, and that continued every time I met up with him somewhere along the way. Guerrero Family, my heart goes out to you. Too much sadness to have to endure, but find strength and comfort in each other. You are a strong and powerful force of love and family and that will always, always keep you bound.

My thoughts, prayers, sympathy and love are with all of you.

*Be blessed and comforted,
Lois*
