My condolences to the Lopez family. Nico was my first teenage boyfriend. We shared alot of good times with friends. I will never forgot his laugh and his personality. My fondest memory of Nicco was dancing with him at Juan's wedding and reminicing about the good old days. Everytime I saw Nico he would always ask me if I was still married to the tall white G.I. He was always straight forward. He was so hallarious! You will be missed my friend Thank you for all the beautiful memories we shared. May you RIP.

“ My condolences to the family first and foremost. Nico will always be a part of my heart and family memories. His favorite Brenton Wood-Nico said all those songs are truth about love and he knew them all. Something really unique about him was for being so tough but so able and willing to speak the word love and talk about it and feel it and express it.. And his laugh. I remember Nico passing by my high school squinting because he couldn't see so good and looking for me..and meeting up with him and Carl at PRC. Nico with his jean jacket wearing English leather and always had a stick of gum. One time he called me and asked me how to make one tortilla. He was so funny and so fun and I can't even believe I'm saying the word was. This is hard. He gave me a diamond promise ring and we took pictures together at Olan Mills- way back in the day. I remember stretching the phone cord all the way downstairs into my room and we would be on the phone all night. All these years later, still our talks laughs love and interests we shared I'm gonna miss his voice and caring heart. He wanted to come see the Daytona 500 Live and I was looking forward to that to see his face but I believe he will always be with me and I'll always have these memories over all those years as part of our lifetime on this earth. I just thought of how we'd do donuts in the snow in the parking lot at the PRC. He asked me if I remembered our favorite song always and forever by heatwave and he told me to listen to it so I could fall in love with him all over again. The love never leaves. See you again, babe. Bye for now my love.
