“ My beautiful hija. Another year has passed and a new one has begun. The holidays are the worst for me. I just want to stay in bed till the day has passed into the next day. I put your urn beside me along with your headstart picture on my nightstand. I put a chicken in the oven w/potato, carrot,celery and green beans. Watched movies that I thought you would like. Listened to music you liked and spent the entire day crying and missing you so much. New Year was the same. My mind and heart still cannot accept that you're no longer with us. Nothing feels the same without you. I love and miss you so very much my beautiful angel daughter ❤️

“ Nicole,my baby, hija I miss you so much. All the memories hurt so much right now. Every single one. The happy memories offer no comfort because your not here and the not so happy memories hurt so much more in your absence. I love you so much hija.

“ Nicole you were one of a kind .. sassy and tough caring and loving.. so much of you I see in Gigi I was blessed to have met you in 2016..we had our ups and downs never would I thought we would have something to bind us together forever .. I often joked as u being my baby mama. We would laugh or argue . I never thought we would be in this position though I thought one day I would be crying as I passed ur daughters hand into yours.. but here I am taking ur baby to say goodbye.. I promise you I'll do right by you . Keep ur memory alive for Regina. Keep ur family close and ur children involved in Gigi's life . We became family thru this little beauty u left on this earth .. Rest in peace Nicole
