“ Pam was a wonderful person. She loved her dog dearly. Does anyone know who has Jack? I send my prayers.

“ Oh no! I just saw this on Facebook and am so sorry I didn't get to go to her funeral. I am shocked and so sad because Pam was a friend that made such a great impact on my life and so many others lives throughout our growing up together. I loved her! I connected with her again after our 10 year reunion and was so happy to have her in my life again. We lost contact after a few years but I thought of her often and hoped that she found happiness. I am so sorry to her family for their loss. God Bless you all and Rest in GREAT Peace Pam!!! I love you always!!!

“ Pam was a wonderful friend to me growing up. I remember spending the night at each other's houses. Such a good person. We have recently been chatting thru Facebook, it was so sad to find out about all of her struggles and health problems. She told me how tired she was and that her little dog Jack had been her Saviour. So, so sad that Pam had to leave us, but I know she is happy in heaven with her mother that she missed so much. Thoughts and prayers go out to family and friends.

“ I was sadden yesterday when I was reading the newspaper and came across the obituary for my good friend Pam. It's crazy how years go by and we lose contact with friends from the past. Our lives get so tied up with our day to day activities. Pam was a great friend and will truly be missed. Heaven gained another angel. I have many fond memories of the good old days, lots of laughter and good times shared with her. I remember celebrating my eighteenth birthday with her. She picked me up in that little green Volkswagen rabbit of hers; (I loved that car; she even had a name for it but I can't remember it.) We went to the Mesa Drive-Inn it was a nice quiet summer night. Not sure the movie we went to see; cause we didn't really watch it, just hanging out. Some how we ended up at Connie's house in the south side of town. All I remember is getting sick and throwing up (I think we were drinking peppermint schnapps) and Pam had to pick me up and pull me out of the bushes. The next morning I woke up at home (not sure how I got home) with a pounding headache and I was wearing clothing from South High School; my mother asking me a million questions. What are you wearing? Where did you get them? I couldn't even tell her they were Pam's she was from East. She was truly a great friend, with a good heart and great spirit. Pam may you rest in peace. You will be missed by all that knew you.

I was looking for pictures to take to the funeral home and came across your picture! Told Fred that story! We all Pam, Zee, you and myself went to the drive inn swung on the swings during the movie and got honked at! Those clothes belong to Freds son and he would like them back! Zee got us all home somewhat safe! Thanks for the memory!
