

Patricia Mae Fierro

November 6, 1953 - April 21, 2026

Patricia Mae Fierro, 72, of Pueblo, Colorado, passed away on April 21, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of love, warmth, and unforgettable memories.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Robert Gauger and Nellie Simmons; her siblings, Robert Alfred Gauger Jr., Ronald Lee Gauger, Clara Marie Collins, Clarence Leon Gauger, and Carolyn Janet Gill.

Patricia's love continues through her children, Lisa (Anthony) Montoya, Georgia Elledge-Carreiro, and Jesse (Kaylia) Carreiro. She was a proud and loving grandmother to Francisco (Johnette), Alisha (Julian), Brandon, Roberto (Aniyah), Patrick, Amber, Cheyenne, Jessica, Leonard, Jayson, Aliyah, Jordan, and Shyla (Dennis). Her joy only grew as a great-grandmother to Jimmy, Julian, Annie, Lilly, Xavier, Nayeli, Apollo, Michael, Nehemiah, Jazaiden, Summer, Eliana, Alayna, Anastasia, and Alexandria.

She is also survived by her siblings, Betty Louise Lane, Shirley Ann Carney, Edward Dwight Gauger, William Wesley Gauger, Benjamin Jerome Gauger, and Alfred Robert Gauger, along with numerous nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever carry her memory in their hearts.

Patricia found happiness in life's simple, beautiful moments—warm summer days, tending to her garden, being outdoors, and especially spending time with the people she loved most. Whether it was a game of bingo, a hand of cards, or simply sitting and laughing together, she had a way of bringing joy, comfort, and connection to every room she entered. Her love was steady, genuine, and deeply felt by all who knew her.

She was the heart of her family, a source of strength, kindness, and unconditional love. The memories she created and the love she gave will live on through generations.

Patricia will be deeply missed, forever loved, and never forgotten.

At her request, cremation has taken place and a private family service will be held.
