“ I worked with Paul at the National supermarket in Sunset Plaza. What a fun guy! Always a smile and a laugh you couldn't ignore. We had a few work lunches together and were a little late to return on a couple of them. So much fun! He loved driving his little souped up Vega (it was actually fun to ride with him too!). I know he will be missed! To Paul's friends and family : We were all lucky to have known him,, my sincerest condolences to all. Curt Osleson

“ I was 8 years old when my father died. My brother and I were staying with the Ponce family. Bugs and Robert treated us like we were their little brothers. Throwing the football and razzing each other. I look back at that time with gratitude and love for family. Rest in peace Bugs
