

Paul John Vigil

January 27, 1921 - June 11, 2016

Porfilo Cristostimo (Paul J.) Vigil, 95, of Pueblo, went home to his father on June 11, 2016, after a lengthy illness. He was a spiritual man who loved and served the Lord. Paul was born in Vermejo Park, New Mexico on January 27, 1921. He grew up in Southern Colorado in the Trinidad area. He worked in the CCC camps before serving in the Army during WWII. He was honorably discharged, January 30, 1946. Paul retired from CF&I, where he had worked in the Wire Mill, Galvanized Department as a zink oven gas tender and fork lift operator. Paul was an innovator who used what he had available to address issues he encountered. He enjoyed fishing and the outdoors. Paul is survived by his children, Ross P. Vigil, Raymond Lyle (Cathy) Vigil, Elaine (Tom) Pease, Jeri (Bob) Leaverton, and Jerry-Gerald (Judi) Vigil; his grandchildren, Anthony (Margaret) Vigil, Valerie (Brian) Sword, Brian Vigil, Greg (Julie) Vigil, Melissa Leaverton, Michael (Tiffany) Leaverton, Lisa (Brad) Mauvais, Jeff Martinez, Christian (Brad) Michael, Aaron (Kelly) Martinez and Adrienne Martinez; great grandchildren, Kristopher Watkins, Avery and Reyna Vigil, Emma Leaverton, Landon Johnson, Keegan Armstrong, Hayden Martinez, Siena and Cole Mauvais and Sophia Martinez; sister, Christella M. Vigil Castillo, and many nieces and nephews. Paul is preceded in death by his parents, Amador and Clorinda Abeyta Vigil; siblings, Joe Mauricio D. Vigil, Augustina Vigil Shoblo, John B. Vigil, Albeo Vigil, Alfonso Vigil and Jennie (Juanita) Vigil Torres; and former wives, Mary E. Apodaca Vigil and Guadalupe Marie Flores Vigil. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Wayside Cross Mission.

Pauls' family would like to thank Dr. Ted Puls, Parkview 5th floor nursing staff and Suncrest Hospice.
