“ Uncle Pete, i am so grateful for the years we had. I was his only nephew on his Father's side and didn't know I had a Uncle until I was 40 years old. When we met for the first time we both had similar passion and one was running for exercise and he shared if I was young we could run together. He was a great Uncle who was tough as he had a hard life, but he always treated me with Love sand Respect. One day a few years ago we shared the greatest gift together and that was the Salvation of our Lord. I knew from that day on why we found each other as it was to fulfill God's will. I will miss you Uncle, but I know that you are safe in the arms of our Father above. Until we see each other again. Your Nephew Louis
