

Ralph Vasquez

October 24, 1925 - November 3, 2015

Ralph Vasquez, affectionately known as “Schoolboy” ,90, of Pueblo, went to be with the Lord on November 3, 2015. He is preceded in death by his wife Theresa Vasquez; great grandson, Zachary Valdez; parents Pedro and Nellie Vasquez. Ralph is survived by daughter, Patricia (Leo Olivas) Vasquez; grandchildren, Kimberly Sosa and Richard Valdez; 4 great grandchildren; 2 great-great grandchildren; sisters, Rose Sanchez, Dorothy (Tim) Dilley and Connie Vasquez; and numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Ralph served in the U.S. Army for 2 years, during the Korean War. He was the owner of Pueblo Trucking and worked as a truck driver for 22 years, he enjoyed traveling, loved Big band music and was a contest winner for his dancing. He enjoyed going to the flea markets and yard sales, he had a large collection of tools. He loved children but most of all loved spending time with his grandchildren. Ralph was famous for his many wise and witty sayings and quotes. “I’d rather owe you than cheat you out of it” and “it’s all about the big picture.” Ralph was an amazing man who loved his family and will be very deeply missed by all who knew him.
