

Ramey Jordan Vasquez

September 24, 2019

Ramey Jordan Vasquez, 43, of Pueblo, passed away on September 24, 2019 at Presbyterian, St. Luke's hospital in Denver, Colorado. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Candelario & Maria Vasquez and Alex & Francis Esquibel. He leaves to cherish his memory his children, Stalyne Vasquez, Vivianna Vasquez and Tatum Vasquez; parents, Gene and Gina Vasquez; sisters, Alexandra Vasquez and Kristyn (Steve) Barton; brothers, Andrew (Raychelle) Vasquez and Jacob Vasquez; nephews Jordon and Nikolas Temeyosa and Joshua Robinson; nieces MacKenzie Vasquez, Whitney and Brooklyn Robinson; mother of his children, Tammy Robinson; special friends, Jeremy Aguilar, Julian Sandoval and Trina Bennet. Ramey was a unique person who knew almost everything about every movie made and every song written. He was an avid Denver Broncos fan and never missed a game, not even when he was in the hospital. Ramey enjoyed grilling for his family, camping and spending time with his children. He also enjoyed classic movies, making his own beats, writing movies and his own comedy acts. Ramey loved tostadas, taco bell and harassing whoever he could. He was a very special person with a heart of gold and will always be remembered for his laugh, his unique personality and sarcastic sense of humor. Ramey will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him but never forgotten.
