

Randolph "Randy" Gonzales

May 7, 1957 - May 3, 2018

Randy Gonzales, 60, of Pueblo West, went to be with his Heavenly Father on May 3, 2018. Randy was born in Pueblo, CO on May 7, 1957 to William and Rose Gonzales who have preceded him in death. Randy is survived by his loving wife of 28 years, Rhonda Gonzales; children, Nathaleen, Mickie, Jocelyn (Stalin), Celina (Matt), Steven, and Ryan; grandchildren, Nick (Selena), Anissia, Alanna, Julianna, Olivia, Nathan, Vanessa, and Eliana; four great-grandchildren; siblings, William (Angela), Joseph "Itch" (Lil), Annette (Greg) Saccomano, Robert (Adriana); numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Randy was a well known musician in Pueblo. He started playing bass at the age of 15 with the Monterreys. Most recently he founded the band Mid-Life Crisis. Randy was a master woodworker designing many beautiful pieces for his family and his church. He was an avid cyclist; he rode the many bike trails in Pueblo West and around Pueblo. He believed that a man's wealth is determined by the size of his family. He felt he was a very rich man. Randy will be remembered for his sense of humor and big heart.
