

Randy E. Cordova

November 29, 1955 - January 2, 2026

Randy Cordova, 70, of Pueblo, Colorado, passed away on January 2, 2026. Born on November 29, 1955, he was the son of Rudolph Cordova and Andrea Blan Cordova. A well-known figure in the community, Randy spent 35 years as a local insurance agent. He was regarded and known by many for the professional care and friendship he extended to those he served. Randy was a great dad who was deeply devoted to his family. He was the beloved husband of Jeanette Hartle Cordova, with whom he shared 55 years of marriage. He was preceded in death by his parents and his beloved wife. Randy's memory is honored by his surviving family: his sister, Jennifer Delacruz; his daughters, Angela Cordova, Andrea Cordova, and Randi Jo; and his grandchildren, Ashley, Jared, Estrella, Astrid, and Vincent. He is also survived by his great-grandchildren, Triniti, Elicio, Gareth, and Jared; nephews, Derek, Isiaha, and Joseph; numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins; and his neighbor and longtime friend, Valerie Matthews.

“ Randy was one of a kind! He was thoughtful, kind and caring. I met him through his dad and my dad. I totally trusted Randy because he always did his best for me and my family with our insurance needs. He was honest. I will miss that laugh. Rest in peace Randy. Thank you for being "you"

OMG we were shocked to see this! We met Randy through his dad Rudy. Rudy was was our insurance agent then Randy took over our policy they were more than our agent they were friends. I always enjoyed when we went to his office if we had a problem or just to pay our insurance. He was an amazing person and always polite, may he Rest In Eternity 🙏 Condolences to his family.
