“ Well where do I begin with the stories I have to tell that me my husband Wedo and Rodney Hill had together I could write a book but the one that holds so vivid in my mind is a ride we took to Bishops Castle and i didnt know at the time they had something very special planned for me that day. We woke up to a beautiful day and got all ready dressed up in all harley gear to ride my husband looking as sezy as I had ever seen him and so I dressed extra special for him too and then here shows up our brother best friend to both of us Rod he also was looking extra good so we get all loaded up and get on the scoots we stop to pick up another friend of our Rhonda Rockwell who was riding that day with Rod and off we went into the beautiful sunshine down the highway headed to Bishops Castle when arriving there after a wonderful ride we head to the top of the Castle when my husband grabs me and plants a huge kiss on my  it was such a special kiss one like no other one before then we had a person take a pic of the four of us as we head down and on the second floor was a ballroom type room where my husband stood next to the sign wedding in progress and he points at the sign and ask me Babe will you marry me again?????? I was so surprised I started to feel tears come out my eyes and I ran to him and said Yes Baby Cakes I'd Love to marry you again and he gets down on one knee and gives me the most beautiful heart diamond ring and slipped it onto my left hand as he did that all I could think of was I felt like Cinderella as he always made me feel like in our relationship and I knew at this moment I finally found my Soulmate up to this time my heart was so empty and by my husband taking time to plan all this I realized God does answer prayers cause for my existence I always prayed God would send me my Soulmate and at this moment I knew my prayers were answered from the first day I met my husband I felt something different I had never felt with any man in this world and I knew till Death Do Us Part would be our life together and now I'm here in these memories as my husband has been called by God to come home i want everyone who reads this to know that there is a God that can give and take away just as fast so cherish your loved one everyday of your lives together and don't miss any moments you have together cause you never know when that memory will be your last!!!!!! My Baby Cakes was my whole world and I'd give anything to have him back I Miss You So Much Baby Cakes and I Love ❤️ You the same way I did when you were here on earth with me and I pray I get to see you again because my life will never be complete again until we're together again!!!!!! ❤️ ❤️ ❤️ Love You till Eternity Without You There is No Me!!!!!!
