“ Rick was more than just a friend. Rick was my best friend and my boyfriend.
Words cannot convey the depth of my sorrow over his passing.
A part of me has gone with Rick.
He will remain in my memory as one of the best times of my life.
The last time we were together he was so happy, he was like a child on Christmas morning.

“ Rick lived beside my mother, Jeanne Dillow. He graduated with my sister Suzan from South. I talked to him many times- he was such a kind man. When we were moving out of my mom's house, Rick helped and was so caring and patient. The Dillow girls were looking forward to hanging out with him for their 50th reunion coming up in July. So sad to hear about his passing. God gained a very kind soul.

“ My family and I are saddened by the loss of our friend and relative! Rick was my childhood buddy and playmate. Recently we have been fortunate to again spend time together and listen to his interesting travels and musical memories. He had many exciting stories and experiences. He was talented at the arts and had a wonderful sense of humor. He was kind, unselfish, and always helpful. Rich was there for his family and for all who needed him, including me. Many are heartbroken for the loss of our friend. We will always treasure our times together and the memories shared. We miss you.

“ I am crushed by the loss of this great friend! Rick was one of the best people I will ever know. Not only was he a musician and a poet, he was one of the most well-read people you could ever meet. I have been fortunate to play in several bands with Rick, work alongside him with Westland Theaters, and we shared a love of reading history and current affairs. He was smart, talented, and had the best sense of humor in the world. I will always cherish our many times together, and I'm not ashamed of shedding many tears for the loss of such a great friend. You were also the most unselfish person I've ever known! Always there when anyone needed you, I will pray that we meet again.
