He loved fishing and camping with his sons, playing his Trumpet and listening to old school R&B, Motown and Jazz. He enjoyed dancing and singing even though he wasn't good at either one. He spoke Spanish that no one understood but him, it was his own language. Robert liked to drink and have a good time. When Robert partied everyone partied. He loved playing his football pools, hanging out in all the B-Town Bars, sitting on his front porch watching the world go by and waving to all the passers by. Work, drinking and Bubba his beloved dog until he passed earlier this year were what he liked best. He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.
