

Robert Aloysius Trujillo

June 2, 1951 - April 4, 2018

Robert Aloysius Trujillo (Papo), 66, of Pueblo, went to be with the Lord on April 4, 2018. He was preceded in death by his parents, Valdemar and Della Trujillo; grandparents, Papa Joe and Inez Trujillo; brothers, Jerry, Albert and Emilio Trujillo and special niece, Kimmy Evel. Bobby is survived by his “Lovie” of 44 years, Sheila Jane Trujillo; daughters, Mary (Ed) Hall, Jodi Figley, Laura (Tomas) Arellanes, Bobbi Trujillo and Wendy (Dom) Quintana; grandchildren, Matthew, She She, Jaylee, Jodeci, Patrick Robert, Allie Cat, Jacob Aloysius, Desty, Diego, Amanda, Zaccy, Tommy, and Elijah; great grandchildren, Alex, Nehemiah, Gatlin, Aspen and Pryce and one great granddaughter on the way; mother-in-law, Wanda Day; numerous brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Bobby raised his five daughters to be strong and independent, he made them tough but he loved them fiercely. He dedicated his life to being a loving father and grandfather. Bobby was a proud veteran, he served as a Mess Sergeant and retired from the Army Reserves. Bobby loved fishing, camping and going for drives in the car. He also loved sports and was an avid Denver Broncos fan. His daughters cherish the many memories they spent with him at Lake Deweese during the summer and watching him play softball. Bobby was a lively and charismatic man who always put a smile on everyone’s face. He enjoyed supporting his grandkids in various activities. He spent his last days happy, laughing, singing and dancing. He will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.
