

Robin Ann Ibanez

November 6, 2019

Robin Ann Ibanez entered our world on September 27, 1962 filling it with joy and departed on November 6, 2019 to further explore the secrets of the universe. Beloved mother, grandmother, and wife. She enjoyed bonding with her family: conquering the world (Risk), educating with fancy words (Scrabble), and discovering the wonders of life known and unknown (zoo, Roswell). She now knows what the truth out there is (X-Files) and she will be sorely missed by all her loved ones until we meet again to revel in the mysterious with her.
