

Robin Antoinette Weldon

April 10, 1955 - March 11, 2025

Robin Antoinette Weldon, a cherished spouse, sibling and mother, gained her angel wings Tuesday, March 11, 2025. She was born April 10, 1955 to Robert Arthur Weldon and Angela Leanore Cascio, who preceded her in death. Robin grew up in Pueblo, Colorado where she attended Catholic school and graduated from Centennial High School in 1973. Robin found great love with her life partner and husband, Douglas Casias, with whom she enjoyed attending her grandchildren's sporting events and hosting family gatherings.

Robin was not only an older sister to her siblings Robert, Rosalind, Rhondelle and Rodney, but also a mother figure to them, taking care of them in their younger years and stayed as a continuous part of their lives. She leaves behind a legacy of love in her daughters, Marie and Jacqueline, who brought her great happiness and joy, and were a constant source of love throughout the years. Her bonus sons, Frankie and Zachariah, joined and completed her circle of familial love. Robin is survived by her spouse, siblings and children (Keith Tooker, Rocky Birch, Danielle Fry-Casias), her grandchildren (Michael Fern, Brittany Tooker, Micheal Pachek, Orion Birch, Frankie Casias Jr, Hunter LaMoureaux, Johnathan Casias), and great grandchildren (Nera Hernandez, Maxine and Myrra Casias).

Robin obtained her nursing license in 1996 and held many other jobs over the years previous, including running the cantina at the County Courthouse where she befriended many individuals. She loved playing canasta with her family and card group, Words With Friends and other games online. She was an avid collector of elephants, and found delight in contributing to her loved ones' collections as well. Robin loved the holidays, and rejoiced in the opportunity to share her excellent cooking and baking. Over her almost 70 years, Robin has touched many lives with her giant heart and unending love for others.
