His wife of 48 years Ermelinda LeFebre. His Sisters Viola Martinez and Bertha (Robert) Basquez, His Brothers Arthur (Patricia) LeFebre and Leonard LeFebre. 23 Grandchildren and numerous Family, Friends, Nieces and Nephews. Roger "Rooster" was a people person he'd talk to anyone and everyone wherever he went. He had a passion for singing, writing songs, and storytelling. He uplifted and inspired people with his music and his voice. He was well known for singing in front of Walmart, King Soopers, The Pantry Restaurant, The Chile festival, The Colorado State Fair and anywhere anyone would let him play his guitar and sing. He would tell everyone to look him up on YouTube. He loved God with all his heart and would share the gospel to anyone. He would tell everyone that God was the most important thing in life. Always put God first, He would say. He had an impact in the community. He always put others first before himself. He and his wife Ermelinda devoted their time picking up children for Sunday school for many years. Family was everything to him. He loved and adored his children and grandchildren. He loved to have his family together for all of the holidays. He loved to throw big barbecues, and parties. He'd invite everyone to them. He was everyone's favorite uncle. He loved cooking, fishing, hunting, and camping. All of my family and the community are heartbroken. We're going miss you. Daddy Aka "Rooster" We love you.
