

Roland Blair Dent

June 10, 1955 - April 2, 2024

Roland Blair Dent, 68, of Pueblo passed away on April 2, 2024. He was preceded in death by his parents, James, and Irma Dent. He is survived by his siblings, Loretta (Mitch) McMahon, Tom (Susie) Dent, Ken (JoEllen) Dent, Cathy Rafferty, Jim (Sharyn) Dent, Joan (John) McDonald, Judy Walker, Dan Dent, Randy (Carol) Dent, Brian Dent and Nancy (Dave) Humphries; numerous beloved nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and good friends. Roland was co-owner in Dent Brothers Service Station with his brother Dan and faithful employees Dave Humphries and Chuck Manzanares and many many others who came and went over the 40 plus years in business. Roland and Dan took over the station from their father who previously ran the business for 30 years. They had many loyal customers who soon became like friends. In his childhood years, Roland loved playing football in the street, basketball, dodge ball and tag with family and neighborhood friends. In adult years Roland played pool, frisbee, and tennis with his friends and family. There was many a Sunday you would see Randy and Roland on the City Park tennis courts. Roland loved playing darts which awarded him many trophies in the dart league. Roland was a loving, caring, loyal and generous person who will be greatly missed.

“ I worked for Dan and Roland at Lincoln Service Center for several years. I quickly learned I was not just an employee but part of their extended family. Roland taught me how to play darts. There was nothing better than a Friday night hanging out and throwing darts with him. He was a good friend and a great person. My condolences to the Dent family.
