“ Nadine's family history book Hans Jacob Honegger from Switzerland to America is the best researched and sourced book I've ever had the pleasure to use. Some lines are traced to the 1500s. Amazing. Rest in Peace, Nadine.

“ I remember Aunt Nadine and her family would come visit us in Farmington, New Mexico when I was a teenager. We had so much fun with our cousins: Mark, Mike, Boyd, and Danny. Nadine was always so kind to me and being around her made me feel good about myself. She and my mom (her sister-in-law) were good friends and she is one person my mom still remembers and misses. (My mom is in the advanced stages of Alzheimer's disease). When my dad (Nadine's older brother) died, she came to Mesa and traveled to Farmington for the funeral with my mom, my brother, and me. Nadine had the voice of an angel and she sang at my Dad's funeral, the most beautiful rendition of Oh Divine Redeemer I have ever heard. She will be missed!
