“ My condolences to Rosie Family and Friends. Rosie is someone who once you met her she stays etched in heart and mind. When she came to Longmont a few times she would always smile, laugh and want hugs. She was loved and that's why she content and grew thank you her care givers through the years for giving her the best life possible and letting her feel the love

“ I always remember Rosie having the prettiest baby dolls and making sure she took good care of them I also remember when your grandpo felix would get her ready and put her on the bus to go to work. She always seemed so happy and loved when people would visit yal. Our prayers are with you ness. She will be missed by so many of us that got to know her. God bless yal! Rest in peace Rosie!
