

Royce Eugene Cappis

September 16, 1961 - October 27, 2023

Royce Eugene Cappis, 62, dearly loved husband, dad, “pops”, coach, and friend, went to be with the Lord on October 27, 2023. He is survived by Lori, his wife of 39 years; daughter Kaci (Shane) Mason; son Royce (Alicia) Cappis; granddaughters Loganne, Sofia, Laynee, Landree, and Rylee; father-in-law and mother-in-law Jack and Judy Rockwell; brothers Arden (Leslie) Sorensen, Rodney (Melissa) Vigil, Jeff Cappis, and Steve Rockwell; sisters Natalie (Barney) Minaudo and Julie (Sheldon) Reeves; and many nieces, and nephews. Preceded in death by his brother Greg Vigil, father George Cappis, and mother Yvonne (Jeannie) Brazeal Medina. Royce was born September 16, 1961, in Pueblo. He was devoted to his children and their friends, coaching all in sports and life. He worked 32 years at CSU-Pueblo fully committing himself to his career and peers there, as well as dedicating his time and resources to help college students that he met through work-study programs and coaching his favorite sport, volleyball. He was referred to as “the coaches coach.”

“ Sports were my life growing up, and Coach Royce is associated with some of my earliest sports memories. He always had a competitive fire and was great at balancing that drive to win with a knack for teaching, especially with young people. Thanks, Coach, for all the great times on the volleyball and tennis courts. We are sending our love to the rest of the Capps family.
