“ I remember we always used to visit her a lot and she would have us play with her hair and I remember running away from my anti's and going straight towards her and she would say you came home and I remember her comforting me when I was going through a lot and she would make sure I had clothes for school and I remember my brother living with her and she was caring for all of us , She had a good heart she was sometimes angry because she would want love from the guys she thought that was there for her .I miss her beautiful face and her beautiful voice it hurt so much when I found out .I love you grandma your in a better place 🥺🙏🏻

“ My dear sister, I didn't get the chance to grow up with you but every time we saw each other you always told me about when I was as baby how you held on tight to me and cried when I went to my new family. I did get my chance to know and love you as if we grew up together. When you called and text me in July I am blessed that we truly had real bonding moment. I'll never forget our talk and I'm glad I could be there for you. When you needed me. I will love you For ever my sister

“ I remember being a little kid sitting in the pews at the church listening to you sing. You had a such a beautiful voice. You were a single mother with five children doing everything on your own and still always found a way to help others that were in need. I'm sure going to miss your homemade food, your hugs and funny jokes. You did a good job mom ❤️ I'm gonna miss you. Love your daughter
