“ This earth lost a great man. I was blessed to meet Gil back in the early 80's when I first entered into the construction industry and have admired his character and cherished his friendship since. He would later call and make plans to exchange vegetables from our gardens but I always knew it was just a reason for him to come by to say hello and check on an old friend I will always remember his heart warming smile and gracious welcome any time you met up with him including right up to the phone call I received from him telling me of his soon to be demise. It started with his little laugh and then he said he just wanted me to hear it from him. Truly a man with a heart the size of the ocean. I will miss him so much as I'm sure everyone will! Thank you Gil. Your friend always
