“ I will always remember Uncle Sal and his commitment to his faith and family. We spent many times sharing Mass together. His faith helped him through many difficulties in life. He shared in all of our family events. His barbecues we're so much fun when we could sit outside and enjoy our family time. I also remember how much he loved to dance. I will cherish those memories forever. I know you are dancing in heaven.
RIP Uncle Sal

“ Everyone in this family has been fishing, shared his homemade jerky or went to pick watermelons in Rocky Ford. Grandpa Sal will be surely missed. He was a blessing in our lives, Rest In Peace Grandpa Sal. Thank you for being such a positive, fun, happy, goofy grandpa that I can ever ask for. Love you!

*Sal or what I like to call him DAD! He could light up the world with his smile. He was the funniest man, he knew everyone, and wasn't shy to share who you were. A man deep rooted in his faith. A man that had a laugh that was contagious and a mean stare that could stare you down with his beady eyes. He was a loving man, a man I will truly miss. RIP DAD you were truly my all time favorite from the day I met you.
