

Sammy Douglas McComb

April 16, 1941 - September 17, 2025

Sammy Douglas McComb, 84, of Pueblo, Colorado, passed away peacefully on September 17, 2025. Born on April 16, 1941, Sammy lived a life defined by hard work, fierce independence, and a deep love for family. He made a name for himself as a dedicated truck driver and a fearless competitor in demolition derbies and racecar events always chasing the thrill of the open road and the roar of an engine. Sammy was a devoted father to Rick, Raelene, Rhonda and Randy. He was preceded in death by his children Randy and Rhonda. He was the beloved son of Roswell and Gertrude McComb, both of whom preceded him in death. He is also survived by his brother, Jerry, and was preceded in passing by his brother, Tom. A proud grandfather and great-grandfather, Sammy's legacy continues through his grandchildren Téa, Ashley, Aaron, Shawnce, and Jessica as well as numerous great-grandchildren who will carry on his strength, humor, and spirit. Sammy lived life full throttle never one to back down from a challenge and always quick with a story. His memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. Service will be livestreamed through Facebook and YouTube at Romero Family Funeral Home Pueblo.

“ Wow! All I can say is thank you for being the best step dad in the world. You always had my back no matter what and you always took the best of care of me and my mom. Never backed down from a challenge and was the best asphalt drive in my eyes. You will be missed and I thank you for everything
