Our Aunt Sara Cardona Montano is no longer here on Earth suffering; she's resting peacefully in heaven with God, Saints & the Heavenly Angels; sending condolences to all our cousins, her children.

She & uncle Pedro moved from North Colorado to Pueblo many years ago, so we didn't see them often after that, but we'll always remember our tia Sara, our Dad Gregorio's youngest & last surviving of his siblings.

I lived in Pueblo West for 2 years (2000-2002) & have many memories of Aunt Sara, while living there, too many to list here; it's a sad time of mourning for the family, especially for uncle Pedro & will take time to heal; we've all been affected by death of our parents, so we empathize & understand the loss of loved ones. From all your first cousins in North Colorado.

Peace love & comfort.
