“ Deepest condolences to your family, Sarah, who will miss you and your sweetness. I didn't know you well, but found you, through my son, Jim, his lovely wife, Michele, and her parents, Claudine and Sam, to be a kind and gentle woman. Carol Coates

“ God lent us an angel. She gave us the best memories, the greatest love, guidance, understanding, comfort and discipline. Her smile, her eyes. Everything about her was amazing. I just want to keep hugging her and having her tell me about how she met grandpa and her memories of growing up. Showing me pictures, and telling me who, is who and telling me down-to-the-date what happened in that picture. Sitting on the back porch laughing and watching her work on her garden. Or getting up and eating her toast and drinking coffee. How she would walk me to Bradford school in the mornings, or we would walk to church on Sunday. During the summer, I got caught up with all of her "Guiding Light" and "As the World Turns" stories. she loved making empanadas with all of us or just watching us. A woman that could be looked up to and admired just by being herself. This is the most amazing, beautiful, charismatic, and strongest woman I have ever known. She showed me what family should be, and is about, That is a gift that I take with me the rest of my life. I know all angels have to go home. But it is so hard to let go when someone leaves that kind of impact on your life. I love you my angel. Tell grandpa hello and I will love you and miss you for the remainder of my life, until I see you again.
