

Scott Allen Maynard

September 16, 2020

Scott Allen Maynard, 44, of Odessa, TX passed away on September 16, 2020. He was preceded in death by his son, Matt Melancon. He is survived by his wife, Melissa Battles; children, Dalton Vick, Ethan Battles, Blake Wheeler; and grandson, Raylen Wheeler. He was a loving and amazing husband, father and grandpa. Everyone loved being around him and he loved each and every person in his life. He worked hard for his family and never gave up on anything or anyone. Since he was a young man he lived in many different places. Along the way he made many friends who eventually turned into family. We all will love and miss him deeply. Even though he is no longer with us physically, he will always be with us in our hearts and souls. We all know he is in Heaven with his grandma, grandpa and son where now he can rest in peace. I know he'll be watching over everyone until we can all be rejoined together. Private Services, 3:00 pm, Friday.

“ While we had only talked a couple time over the past many years it seems like only yesterday we were hanging out as kids having fun in the old neighborhood. It saddens me to know you're gone so soon. If I could go back and change thing I would stayed in touch more.

“ To my best friend and my husband, I will never forget how we just connected instantly and how vu took on the role of being a dad again, u connected to our boys instantly! It was the most wonderful 14 years together babe!! I just wish we had 14 plus years to go like we always talked about. U will always be here with me heart an soul!! I miss you so much

“ We only knew Scott for a short time, but he'd always share pictures of his family. He was very special to us.
