“ PEARL DUSTIN LESLIE TIM AND MY SELF wish we were with you in the flesh to celebrate Shawn's life. so we are holding you tight in our hearts.

there's so much you could say about Shawn Thomas, the good and hard times he experienced on his walk on this earth. We watched him grow from a babe to a wonderful man, so many memories, his smile laughter orneriness fills our hearts with joy. Remembering his fear of the mud monster him working at Francisco's having to stand on a stool to reach the sink, him delighting in his Aunt Pearl getting after after me for working him to hard , giving his uncle Mike a hot foot, who by the way taught him how. ,to watching Shawn turn into a loving caring Dad! So much love, joy so many good times, his life will never fade away from our hearts. we all pass and every time some one we love leaves us behind they take a part of us with them, and leave a larger part of them in our hearts. your love and memories remain. Yes- Shawn you will be missed and when we miss you the most we will find you in that special place in our hearts. you will always be there. all our love uncle Phil aunt Pearl and family “ Shawn I remember SOOOO many Good times with you like me driving grandpa's big truck and camper back from visiting in in Texas and me slamming on the brakes and grandpa yelling out the window to "Pull over"!! You looked at me with such sympathy and said "oh OH"!!! Ha ha...working at Francisco's with you, you were such a good little worker..going on vacation s with you...the way you loved your momma and later how you loved your own little family..We all loved you so much since you were born Shawn...through the good times and bad..all the memories with you I wouldn't trade for the whole world. My heart breaks for the loss of you Shawn and you are forever in my heart. LOVE YOU MUCH!!!
