“ Our first memory of Sherry is when she came to our house for a weekly bible study with 3 little kids in tow and all being led by Ila, another dear friend. From that moment on, Sherry and I maintained a close, deep friendship, that became more like sisters! We talked regularly about raising our kids, but mostly how important our God, the only true God, Jehovah had become to us and how we wanted to remain faithful to him and instill that love for him in the hearts of our children. I watched Sherry lovingly, gently, patiently and faithfully to Jehovah, raise 4 kids to be responsible, productive adults in society. She lost 1 of her precious children to death and was nearly crushed. Again, she put her faith and trust in Jehovah and he comforted her and sustained her with the hope of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth where sickness will be no more. Following Sherry's example of staunch Faith and Love for Jehovah is the best way we can show our love, respect and appreciation of this beautiful, little woman with the ready smile! We love you and miss you, dear "sister" and hope to be there in the new system to welcome you back in the resurrection!! Forever in our hearts!
Your friends of over 40 years!

“ Sherry will definitely be missed. Her beautiful smile, her wonderful hugs, her love and loyalty for her God, Jehovah will always be remembered until we see her again. When death will be no more (Rev. 21:3,4) Her love for Jehovah was known by all who knew her and gave us so much encouragement. May you draw comfort to know she was truly loved by many.
