“ Hey Aunt Sherri. We never met, you tried to visit my family when I was a kid but we weren't in town. You died the year after your brother, my father. Both of you died so young, I'm so sorry to haven't had met you. You were so beautiful and seemed so full of life. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her.
May she rest in peace. Amen.

“ ( I wrote a message but for some reason didn't post) I'll try again. Sherri was my little sister. Our moms were sisters (mine being the baby of the family) they were both removed together and sent to Missionary Orphanage as little girls, I share this because I feel it plays a huge part of who Sherri and I became. We were closer than just cousins we were sisters just like our moms. Sherri was given an extremely difficult life and pathway, she had to be an adult when she was little girl. She experienced a great deal of loss and grief. When she was 12 she came and lived with me at our Auntie ( our moms older sister) home. Our Auntie was like that opening her arms and home to our moms as girls and then to us. I know it broke her when she lost you kids, she always loved you, always held onto hope that she could someday have a relationship with each of you and her grandbabies. She spoke with such warmth and pride on how you all turned out, your families and grandbabies. You were her heart. Sherri was beautiful inside and out. Good, kind, compassionate old soul who cared deeply for those she loved and extended to strangers. She loved animals, being in the mountains... I still cannot grasp she's gone. I was truly blessed to have had her in my life and call her my little sister. I'll miss you Sherri. Let me know when you're near. Tell Grandma, Aunt Dodie, Your Mom and mine I love them. Rock on Sherri

“ My beautiful little sister, I cannot grasp that you are gone... Our mothers were sisters, mine being the baby of the family. Both were very close, like we were. Our mothers were removed together and sent to Missionary Orphanage I share this because it has a lot to do with how we both grew up. Sherri was given a very difficult life, more than a child should ever have to bear. She wasn't given a chance to know her siblings, she has older brothers somewhere. When she was 12 she came to live with me our maternal Aunt ( our moms older sister) home. I know she loved all of her children, I know it hurt her greatly to have lost them. Always know she loved you Crystal, Anthony and Jeremiah. She wanted you to know this. I know it was difficult for you not to have her in your lives. She held onto hope of having relationships with all of you. Sherri was absolutely beautiful inside and out. Good, kind an old soul. She cared deeply for others and strangers alike. I was truly blessed to have had her in my life. She'll always be my little sister. I'll miss you. Send me a sign your near. I love you.

“ My name is Hope Patterson. Me and Sherri were lime sisters sence 1988 . ID b n there for all but one of her children's births. She was only 19 when we meet n had just had crystal. Crystals dad Dave n my Husband were friends up until his death in 2010. I lost touch with her after we moved back from California. We had gone out there togeather in 1989. The Frist time .she and the kids lived with me off n one for the better part of 8 yrs. She always was very beautiful n loved her kids with all her heart. She had a very insecure childhood n wanted her kids to have more than she thought she could give them. ID like her kids to know YOUR MOMMY LOVED U ALL WITH ALL HER HEART AND O LY WANTED TO BEST FOR YOUS. SO PLEASE KNOW EVEN IF SHE DIDNT HAVE THE TOOLS IT TOOK TO RAISE YOU ALL IT WASNT BECAUSE SHE DIDNT LOVE YOU THAT SHE ALLOWED OTHERS TO RAISE YOU. IT WAS BECAUSE SHE LOVED YOU SOOO MUCH SHE WANTED YOU TO GROW UP IN A HAPPY HEALTHY HOME WHERE YOU HAD A OPPORTUNITY TO BECOME THE BEST PERSON YOU COULD BE. JUST ALWays know she lived u all the most. Love all u kids. Miss seeing yours grow up.Love your Auntie Hope..she will be missed but now shea in heaven watching over my son Sammy.they are looking down on us n no longer Suffering or in pain. But happy n loved with Jesus.
