“ I don't know any of you but my heart breaks for the pain you have suffered through. I know that your loved one is with our Savior and you will grieve but you'll all be united one day. Be as she'd wish for you to be, grow strong in your Faith and make her proud of you. Let her rest easy with her Savior and they can both look down with pride and love.

“ I can't believe how quickly life changes. Sherri Ann, you were my partner in crime.. among all the cousins growing up.. childhood was so much fun because you were a part of the memories. My deepest condolences and wishes for gods grace during this time and always, this day forward. Love you all.

*I live just three blocks away. The day after this terrible tragedy was my 81st birthday. We had a sharpshooter across the street from my house a good part of the day. I had no idea what was happening but once I learned the news I felt so sad for the children. They were left inside that house for hours before a warrant could be obtained an officers could enter the house and help the children to escape. There's still a used red car parked in the driveway. There's nothing I can do not that I know of, but if I can be of help please feel free to get in touch with me

“ Our families are "family", we grew up together & we shared girl scout's together. You would give me your hand me downs. Half my wardrobe was from you. Our mothers best of friends & our paths would always cross.

When you lost your best friend, who gave me advice when I lost mine. We lost our fathers around the same time & we found comfort in each other.

Your time with us was far too short, but your impact will last a lifetime. You were loved deeply, and you will be missed beyond measure. Thank you for the joy, the lessons, and the love you shared with us. Though you are no longer with us in person, you will live on in our hearts and in the stories we share about you.

May you rest in peace, and may we find solace in the love and memories you leave behind.
