“ George was like an older brother to me. I remember vividly hanging out at his apartment playing cards and having great times. It has been many years since i saw or talked to George but I can still hear him telling me to "get a grip PeeWee". Godspeed my brother rest in peace.

“ We all are gonna miss that laugh I remembered growing up with him and your family. I've known George most of my life when we were little kids playing in the back yard, all through school, we were all buds, cuz, friends like no other, of course we hadnt seen him for a while , but that doesnt change all the years of friendship and fun. God bless all the family , I will forever remember George...

“ George was my stepmother's grandson. Born only 14 days before me, we played football, tag and anything else we could think of together when I went to visit my dad and Nickie. I remember one fourth of July weekend we had an especially fun weekend blowing up all of fireworks my dad bought us. He was fun to be around. RIP, George. Jackie "Cabbage" Toppin
