She was a wonderful and loving mother and grandmother and she will be missed dearly and always in our hearts! Gino n I loved her very much and we always knew we had a home with opened arms to go to when we visited! She will always be with us in great memories! Hold your heads up high and know she loves all of you with her whole heart and soul!

We all loved her. I always remember making tortillas & playing with the masa. We would throw it up at the ceiling and wait for it to fall. Grandma will forever be missed & remembered with love.

“ Thank you for giving me Gino when he was 3 days old... You knew I would love him as my own child... May you rest in Paradise.. Even though they listed him as your son in your obit, I know you would not have wanted that... every body knew he wasn't yours.. I loved you in life and will remember you fondly ...
