

Steven Wayne Avina

November 19, 2020

Steven Wayne Avina, 61, of Pueblo passed away on November 19, 2020. He was preceded in death by his mother, Delphine Avina; and several aunts and uncles. He is survived by his father, Jesus Avina, Pueblo; lifetime companion, Loretta Lucero, Pueblo; brothers, Jess (Jean Leier) Avina, Charlotte NC, and Brian Dutton, Pueblo; aunt, Jennie Salas; great aunt Adeline Aragon, Pueblo; and numerous cousins and friends. Wayne was born in Pueblo to Delphine and Jesus on June 14, 1959. He attended school at Pueblo East High School and graduated from the University of Southern Colorado with a degree in engineering. Wayne worked for many years at the Rocky Flats plant near Denver. Wayne is known as a “super fan” of the Denver Broncos and Nuggets as well as the Colorado Rockies and Avalanche. Wayne loved sports and was known in the community as the “Cachucha (Hat) Man.” the Denver Post once did a story on him for sports and selling sporting merchandise. Wayne will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him. A memorial service will be held in 2021 in Pueblo. Memorial Service, 3:00 pm, Friday, Romero Family Funeral Home. Service may be viewed through Live stream on Facebook at Romero Family Funeral Home, Pueblo and YouTube at Romero Family Funeral Home Pueblo.

Love you, Cousin Wayne. It was always such a pleasure to meet up to you & Loretta. Thanks for the lovely memories from being at the University (USC, Pueblo) back in the day-- & other times at B Street Bash, Festival Fridays, etc. No one like you!

So sorry to hear of Wayne's passing. We will always remember how friendly his was. As he sat with Lorretta at the Prime in that same corner, he would make his way over to where we were to say Hello! Such a great guy. Lorretta, on the day of his Celebration of Life we were on a camping trip (so sorry we didn't attend). You are in our hearts and prayers. ❤️
