

Susan Hernandez

October 9, 1937 - July 30, 2015

Susan Hernandez, 77, left this earth and entered into eternal life to be with her Heavenly Father on July 29, 2015. She is preceded in death by her husband of 59 years, Carlos “Chuck”; parents, Benito and Christina Martinez; and sister, Maria “Quillie” Trujillo. Susan is survived by her son, Charles (Terry); daughters, Brenda Lovato, Katrina (Anthony) LiVecchi, Lisa Hernandez, Rhonda (Fred) Miller, Vanessa Hernandez and Patrice (Tim) Wicker; grandchildren, Melissa, Marie, Michelle, Charley, Larissa, Ryan, Marcus, Shaun, Diana, Samantha, Douglas, Bruce, Anthony, Devin and Kayla. 10 great grandchildren; sisters, Dorothy, Esther and Maxine; close friends, Daisy, Diane, Stella and Ila Mae; and numerous extended family and friends. As a life long parishioner of Mount Carmel Church, Susan served as an excellent role model to her children in her devotion to the Lord. She was the best mother in the world who always put her children first. She served the City of Pueblo, working at the Pueblo Police Department in Records, at Pueblo Housing, and at City Hall where she retired as a Senior Clerk Typist. Susan managed her families finances better than most corporate financial officers. She enjoyed listening to music, dancing, walking Baby around Runyon Field to collect balls, and taking trips to the mountains with her Daisy to watch the Aspens change. She was by far her children’s and grandchildren’s biggest fan, spending the majority of her time watching softball, basketball, and baseball games. She knew that her wealth was not material but rather rich in love from her family and friends. She was just amazing.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family. I have known the Hernandez family for more years than I can remember. Susie was a good, kind, giving, "lady of God" who would do anything for anyone. She was a neighbor to my auntie Emma and my Momma for years. She will be sadly missed. Gods Blessings to the family.

My Family would like to Thank Angelo & The Staff at Romero Funeral Home for helping us through our Father's Celebration of His Life in January and 6 months later Our Dear Mother. Death is the hardest thing we face on this earth and Angelo & his staff went above & beyond to help us all through this very very difficult time! It was sad enough to loose our Father to a painful cancer & then to loose our Mother 6 mother's later to a horrific crime. Thank you Angelo & Staff for all your comfort, hugs, help, empathy, generosity, stories of our Parents and most of all your Prayers, we can't thank you all enough! Both our Parents thought the World of you All!

*Sincerely,
Family of Carlos & Susan Hernandez*
